Containing the freshest Advices foreign and domestic.

THURSDAY, July 31, 1760.

MISSISSIPPI, April 26.

On the 24th the King of Prussia left Freyberg very early in the Morning, and lay that Night at this Place. The next Day he went to Wild-druff, in order to withdraw that Part of the Chain of Cantonment which extends from the Forest of Tharandt, on the Right to the Elbe, which was happily performed without any Loss whatever: And his Prussian Majesty arrived this Morning at 4 o'Clock, at Schlettan, and here the Head Quarters are at present fixed. The Troops that were at Freyberg, and in that Neighbourhood, having first sent off their Baggage, had Orders to begin their March Yesterday Morning, which was effected without any Interruption from the Austrians.

Paris, May 3. Captain Barre is appointed to command the flat-bottomed Boats along the Coast. It is sufficient to alarm the English, to name some one to command the Embarkation and Convoy, and we laugh here at their Projects of a Descent, which they make to depend on the Success of their Arms in Germany.

Petersburg, April 23. The 13th Infant a Courier was dispatched to Vienna with the Plan of Operations for this Campaign, in which we shall employ 90,000 regular Troops, and 12,000 Irregular, with 450 Pieces of Cannon. This Army may act with so much the more Confidence, as there is no Danger of its Provisions and warlike Stores being intercepted by an English Squadron; for by Virtue of a Treaty just concluded between our Court and Sweden and Denmark, these three Powers combine to keep all foreign Fleets out of the Baltic.—A very good Reason why a British Squadron is not sent thither.

Paris, April 28. The King hath purchased the St. Anne, a Genoese Ship of War of 64 Guns, lately arrived from Lisbon at Toulon. It is thought that we shall procure others in the same Manner.

Dunkirk, April 25. Yesterday the Artificers began to fit out here the Velivius, Xtna, and Salamander Fireships; but we know no more of their Destination, than that of our flat-bottomed Boats, which are also ordered to be got ready.

Lisbon, April 1. The Earl of Kinnoul, Ambassador Extraordinary from Great-Britain, has been sent hither to give the King public Satisfaction for the Insult committed against the Territory of Portugal, by the Ships under Admiral Boscawen, when they burnt and took on the Coast of Lagos, the French Ships under the Command of M. de la Clue. The Ambassador acquitted himself of his Commission, at a solemn Audience which his Majesty gave him the 21st of last Month. He addressed our Monarch in a Speech, containing Excuses for what is past, and Assurances of a more respectful Conduct, on the Part of the English, for the future. After this signal Satisfaction to the Crown of Portugal, there remains nothing but to procure the French just Amends for the Damage they have suffered, and it is not doubted but that our Ministry will obtain this also.

LONDON, May 6.

An English Privateer, mounting 20 Guns, was taken by the Oiseau Frigate, as she was carrying a Prize into Port, and carried into Toulon.

They write from Saxony, that they had Advice that 20,000 Russians were on their March to join General Laudohn, at Ottmachau, in Upper Silesia; and that they had passed by Cracow, in Poland, the 12th inst.

On the 27th of April passed by Ostend, a Dunkirk Privateer, with two Prizes. She had sent in five and ransomed several.

We hear that Lord Charles Hay, about a Month before his Death, agreed with a Gentleman, for 3000 Guineas, to pay him £. 300 per Annum during his Life.

By an Account lately received from Switzerland, we hear, that the celebrated Author, Monsieur Voltaire, was found dead in his Bed, after eating a hearty Supper, and going to repose himself in good Health.

May 10. According to the last Letters from Copenhagen, all the Steps taken by Denmark, at the Solicitation of England, to restore a good Understanding between the Courts of Stockholm and Berlin, have proved ineffectual.

The English will not imitate the Dutch, who after taking Possession of Pondicherry, in the Year 1693, restored it at the Peace of Ryfwic. No, the English will destroy it first; they will not leave one Stone upon another, since England has become the Rival of France; that is, since they have tried each others Strength, and found that neither of them could boast a superior Degree of Valour, Genius, or Resources. But Circumstances are greatly altered: Quebec (perhaps Montreal) Senegal, Goree, Guadaloupe, Louisbourg, Pondicherry (if the News proves true) no longer belong to France; her Marine almost destroyed, is no longer able to make Head against 250 British Men of War, who cover the Seas; in Consequence of which, her Commerce is expiring. England gives Law; England triumphs; England eternizes its Glory and Projects.

It is reported that a Southern Power has offered the most potent Prince in Europe Three Millions to stand neuter in the approaching Italian War, and was refused, on Account of subsisting Treaties to one of his best Friends.

Divers private Letters from Peterburgh, by the Way of Hamburg, import, that Mr. Keith, the British Envoy at that Court, lately used his utmost Endeavours to prevail upon the Empress of Russia to withdraw her Troops from the King of Prussia's Dominions; but the' he made some advantageous Offers, they were absolutely rejected, and his Excellency has been told once for all, that it will be in vain for him to harp any more upon this String, the Russian Court being firmly resolved not to deviate in the least from the System it has adopted.

Letters from Hanover of the 9th Instant, import, that an unexpected Stop had been put to exchanging and ransoming the French Prisoners. The French Court has agreed to pay 800,000 Rix Dollars for their Prisoners, which has not been executed for want of Money. [A very material Obstacle.]

May 15. The following is Part of the Character of the celebrated Voltaire (who is said to have lately died very suddenly at Geneva) which was wrote by the King of Prussia a few Years since.

"He is first polite, then cold, then disgusting. He is attached to nothing by Choice, but to every Thing by Inconstancy. He has a clear Head, and a corrupt Heart. His Vanity is excessive, but his Avarice is yet greater than his Vanity. He is always superficial, because he is not able to be deep. He would fain be an extraordinary Man, and an extraordinary Man he most certainly is."

The Sentiment of a certain high Personage concerning Lord Ferrers, ought publicly to be recorded, as worthy the illustrious Protector of a free People. "I distinguish, (said this Personage) greatly between the Cases of Treason, and that for which Earl Ferrers stands convicted; Connections, Prejudices, Education itself, often render the unhappy Traitor a fit Object for Mercy, as being in other Respects perhaps a valuable Man, and a good Subject: But, for this Lord, he can only be considered as a common Enemy to his Fellow Creatures, and as such not fit to live among them."

May 15. We hear that the Honourable Navy Board have contracted with several Merchant Builders, for Frigates of 16 and 20 Guns, for his Majesty's Service, of a new Construction.

Commodore Gwyn, with four Men of War from Gibraltar, is cruising off Capliari.

Lord George Sackville was, on the 5th Instant, pursuant to his Majesty's Letter, struck out of the List of his Majesty's Privy Council in the Kingdom of Ireland.

Two stout French Privateers, of 18 Guns, and 200 Men each, have taken ten Prizes in eight Days, on the North-West Coast of Ireland.

May 17. We hear that Admiral Boscawen had sent away from his Squadron, which is stationed at Quiberon Bay, the Dorsetshire, Foudroyant, and Montague, all Ships of the Line, to the West-Indies, and they are ordered to proceed thither with the utmost Diligence.

May 20. The Foot Guards that are to go to the Isle of Wight have been all reviewed, mustered, and made complete, and will march in less than ten Days.

We hear that the Fleet under Admiral Saunders, bound for the Mediterranean, will carry over fresh Troops to relieve the Garrison of Gibraltar.

Yesterday the Right Honourable the Earl Ferrers took his Seat in the House of Peers, in the Room of his Brother deceased.

By our last Advices from Quiberon Bay we should imagine, that a Cessation of Hostilities is tacitly agreed on between the adjacent Inhabitants and our Fleet; as our Ships Companies are plentifully supplied with fresh Provisions, and even admitted to come on Shore and amuse themselves.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, May 15.

"One Woman's Lust of Power must spread Desolation far and wide. Amazing Policy! What a Waste of Men and Money to widen Dominion already too wide, depopulate Countries to grow more powerful! Strange Injustice! Indeed if all the Women in Russia were as proud as the Queen, 70 or 80,000 Men would be but one Night's Work, who might in Time replace those she is going to sacrifice to her Caprice.—What a dreadful Account must one Day be rendered for Blood thus wantonly spilt.—The Declaration lately made to an Ambassador at Vienna shows a determined Resolution to hazard all. Deaf to the Cries of Humanity, deaf to the Voice of Reason, she plunges furiously on, in order to gratify her Spirit of Revenge. From such a Temper can Peace be expected? Nothing but a Submission to the most shameful Conditions can appease this ambitious Woman. And whoever touches the political String of Peace at Vienna, must tune the Instrument to Requisition, Indemnification, and Security. It may be that others are not quite free from Obstinacy, and require Terms which nothing but Conquest can intitle them to; and perhaps too it may be said with Truth, that these two German Rivals are like Caesar and Pompey, the one can bear no Equal, the other no Superior."

This Day both Houses of Parliament were prorogued by his Majesty's Commission, when the following Bills were passed.

The Bill for granting to his Majesty a certain Sum out of the sinking Fund.

The Bill for allowing a weekly Maintenance to the Families of Militia Men embodied and ordered out into actual Service, and unable to support themselves; and for lessening the Number of Officers.

The Bill for granting to his Majesty a Sum towards paying off Part of the Debt of the Navy.

The Bill for granting to his Majesty the Sum of One Million. The Bill for the more effectual securing the Payment of Prize and Bounty Money, as were appropriated to the Use of Greenwich Hospital.

The Bill to encourage the Exportation of Rum and Spirits of the Produce of the British Plantations.

KINGSTON (in JAMAICA) June 7.

Last Monday two more of the Negroes, concerned in the late Conspiracy, named Scipio and Harry, were executed at Spring-Path; and last Thursday another Negro, named Caffer, likewise concerned, was executed at the same Place. They were first hanged, then their Heads struck off, and fixed on Poles, and their Bodies burnt.

And Yesterday three Men and two Women, who, on Trial, appeared to have some Knowledge of the Conspiracy, were severely whipped through the Town.

June 14. On Thursday Afternoon two Negroes, named Quaco and Anthony, concerned in the late Infurrection in St. Mary's, were executed at Spring-Path, according to Sentence: The former was burnt at a Stake, and the latter hanged; his Head cut off and fixed on a Pole on the Greenwich Road. Four Negro Women, named Sappho, Princess, Sylvia, and Doll, who it appeared had some Knowledge of the Conspiracy, were conducted to the Place of Execution, with Halters round their Necks; and, after Quaco and Anthony were executed, were re-conveyed to Goal, from whence they are to be transported from this Island, and to suffer Death if they return.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Savanna-la-Mar, to his Friend in this Town, June 10, 1760.

"Colonel Spragge is encamped at George Williams's Estate, with the Regulars and Militia; from whence Parties are daily sent out after the rebellious Negroes, who never stand above one Fire before they run into the Woods; however, several of their Head-men have been killed, about 20 Guns, and 50 Pounds of Powder taken. It is reported, that they have murdered all the Negro Children the Women carried with them, and are obliged to keep a close and constant Guard over the Women, who it is thought they will all massacre; whenever they are closely pursued. As they are badly armed, we doubt not of being soon able to give a good Account of them."

P. S. There are no other Negroes risen than at first, notwithstanding it has, as I hear, been reported so in Kingston."

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) July 5.

On Sunday Night Mr. Aaron Price arrived in Town, Express from the Cherokees, with Dispatches from the Honourable Colonel Montgomery to his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor. By him we have the following Advices.

From Fort PRINCE-GEORGE, and the Camp. (A Continuation from the 7th of June to the 23d). That on the 7th one of the Highlanders was still missing, supposed to be taken or killed seeking Plunder.—That on the 8th Lieutenant David Webb, of Grinnan's Rangers, took himself away, to carry a Wench to Ninety-Six.—That on the 10th most of the Catawbas, and some of the People in the Pay of the Province (without Leave) went to little Keowee, in Quest of Plunder; brought off all the Corn they found there, and burnt the remaining Houses. The same Day, a little before Sunset, Anthony Simmons, a Soldier, of the Provincials, coming from the Camp at Mile-Creek, about a Quarter of a Mile from it, was fired at by four or five of the Enemy, who shot him through the Arm, immediately after rushed upon him with their Tomahawks, and took off his Scalp, with some of the Flesh; he defended himself as well as he could, but being much chopped about the Hands, they at last overpowered him: The Indians had but just Time to escape, and left a bloody Tomahawk by him: He was alive, and likely to do well.—That on the 11th one of the Royals was killed and scalped, near the Grass Guard. Early in the Morning the Picquet Guard saw several of the Enemy, but neither molested each other, as it was not intended to fire on the Indians during the ten Days allowed Tiftoe.—That on the 12th Aaron Price brought an Account that he found Lieutenant Webb's Horse killed at Twelve-Mile River, and that his Negro Girl had got to Ninety-Six.—That on the 13th Lieutenant Webb returned to the Camp almost naked and starved, having been attacked on the 8th, at Eleven at Night, as he was crossing Twelve Mile River, and had his Horse killed under him, but by Favour of the Night made his Escape: When he betook himself to the Woods, he says he fell in with Indian Camps, one after another, for four Days and Nights, successively, and at last had strayed almost down to Eighteen-Mile Branch. He supposed the Indians to be the late Inhabitants of the Lower-Towns, moving down towards the Settlements, to revenge their Losses sustained by the Army.—That on the 14th the Grass Guard discovered some Indians over the River, five of the Regulars were chased by 13 of them to the Guard.—This Day Tiftoe should have returned with an Answer from the Middle-Settlements and Over-Hills, but did not appear.—That on the 15th, the Time being expired for Tiftoe's Return, the Army began to bag up Flour, and make other Dispositions for proceeding further into the Enemy's Country, and the Day was even fixed for marching; but towards Evening came in Half-breed Tom, of the Middle-Settlements, and another Half-breed, Son of John Downing, with a white Flag, which put a Stop to further Proceedings. These Runners reported, "that the Head-men of their Towns being much dispersed, it had not been possible for Tiftoe to execute his Commission; that he had, however, communicated his Instructions to such as he had met with; was gone over the Hills; and would be back to the Army after six Sleeps more." Colonel Montgomery accordingly gave him that further Time to make his Appearance, and the Runners set off again the same Evening: They likewise reported, that the Middle-Settlements

People

People had reproached those of the Lower Towns with Cowardice, and as being the Authors of their own Misfortunes; and told them, that if the Army should march thither, they would meet it with a white Flag.—That on the 16th the Raven, of Eftatowih, Half-breed Barker, and two more of the Cherokees, that had been decoyed and confined by Mr. Milo, were released, and told, "that they were not looked on as Prisoners of War, but at Liberty to do as they pleased; that if the Nation were for Peace, we were willing to accommodate Matters with them; but if for War, we were ready for them; and that if at any Time they had a Mind to speak to Colonel Montgomery, the bringing in a white Flag should protect them." Every Thing they had when decoyed was restored to them. This Day the Catawbas returned homewards, with their Plunder, and are since arrived at Pine-Tree-Hill, with 30 Horse Loads.—That on the 17th to 18 or 19 Indians beset three of Captain Brown's Rangers, who were fending their Horses between the Camp and Little-Keowee, two of whom were killed and scalped, the third got away; one of the Killed was a Negro. This Evening Mr. Andrew Williamson arrived at the Fort, with 120 Head of Cattle, from Ninety-Six, escorted by Captain Q'Neal's Rangers.—That on the 20th the Cherokees endeavoured to make a lasting Peace with two more of the Rangers; but being near the Grays Guard they only wounded one of them in the Side. This Day the Time prolonged to Tiptoe expired, without any News coming from him or the Nation. And at Night James Brannom, a Half-breed Indian, arrived Express from Fort Loudoun, who reported, "That the Upper-Towns, except Tomawley, did not choose to make Peace; had invested the Fort; put several of their Prisoners to Death; and threatened the Little Carpenter's Life, who was looked upon as an Englishman, and no longer admitted into their Councils; that some of the Lower-Towns People were gone over the Hills, and others remained in the Middle-Settlements, but all of them were starving and naked; that the Over-Hills Towns were very ill provided with Corn, and the Middle-Settlements almost destitute of Ammunition; that the Indians in the Middle-Settlements seemed to be desirous of Peace, but afraid to treat; and that he with great Difficulty and Artifice made his Way good.—That upon this Intelligence the Army moved their Camp from Mile-Creek, and leaving all their Tents, Waggon, and unnecessary Baggage at Fort Prince George, on the 22d they crossed Keowee River, with six Days Provision per Man, to take with them, a Gang of Cattle, and 400 Pack-Horses, laden with Flour.—That on the 23d, the Army was getting ready to begin their March the next Morning, for the Middle-Settlements, and were all healthy, in good Spirits, and eager for an Opportunity to humble our Savage Enemies.—And that the Honourable Mr. Atkin staid at Fort Prince George, with Major Hamilton, who was sick, and the wounded Lieutenants Marshall and Hamilton.

From Fort Lattobow. That the Garrison had not enjoyed two Hours Rest since the Departure of Lucas (the former Express) from thence.—That on the first of June in the Night, Oconasotah, with the Warriors of Chotih, Settiquoh, and Chilhowih, set out on a secret Expedition; to disguise their Intentions, they pretended to have discovered some Enemy Indians Tracks, which they were going in Quest of. June 2d, The Little Carpenter, who is again out of the Fort, came and informed Captain Demere, that no Enemy Tracks had been seen; cautioned him to be strictly on his Guard; expressed great Concern, that he was no longer able to give Intelligence, as formerly, of what passed in his Countrymen Councils; and wished that the Army would make Haste up, that he might see the hot-headed People of his Nation well beaten and humbled. June 3d, Every Thing seemed quiet, and no Indians could be seen by the Centinels, upon which Lieutenant Maurice Anderson, of the Provincials, and Thomas Smith, a Pack horseman, went out; they had not gone above 50 Yards on the Side of a Hill, before they were fired at, killed and scalped, by some Indians who had concealed themselves behind a small Log; 40 or 50 Men fell out of the Garrison, but too late to be of any Service: Immediately after, the Indians fired on the Fort on all Sides, from the Hills around, but were so well concealed, that returning their Fire was in vain. June 5th, The Little Carpenter gave Information to Captain Demere, that it was the Great Warrior that had invested the Fort; that there had been great Rejoicings in the Town House at Chotih over Anderson and Smith's Scalps; and that Oconasotah has sent for the Warriors from the Towns of Talliquoh and Chatughi to come to his Assistance, and intended when they came to set Fire to the Puncture of the Fort in the Night, to storm it, and put to Death every Soul he should find there. Preparations were accordingly made for his Reception, and the Garrison wished the Indians might not decline the Attempt; the Little Carpenter being told so, joined in the Wish, and that they might suffer severely. June 6th, The Little Carpenter sent Word that a Runner had arrived at Chotih, with an Account of Colonel Montgomery's being at Keowee, of his burning Eftatowih and the other Lower-Towns, and that he was determined to serve the rest in the same Manner; which News seemed to give the Over-Hills People great Concern. He also sent Word, that a Runner was just arrived from the Creeks, with a painted wooden Hatchet (as a Token of War) and a Talk, in which he acquainted the Cherokees, "That many Creeks were coming to their Assistance, and would arrive at Hywasih in a few Days; and that he was ordered to ask them (the Cherokees) for Powder and Bullets for those Allies." That the Cherokees, instead of rejoicing upon this Occasion, were much surprized, and entertained a Suspicion, that the Creeks came only with an Intent to fall on their Towns, and make the Way clear for the Army: The Little Carpenter added, if so, he feared his Countrymen would escape Chastisement, by Flight. From June 6th to the 9th inclusive, The Enemy continued skulking about the Fort, so that it was impossible to get further Intelligence, or Refreshments from any of the Towns; and the Warriors had Orders to kill all Women that should attempt to go to the Fort. The Beginning of the Month, a Friend Indian conveyed four Head of Cattle thither from Hywasih; but when the Express came away (the 9th at Night) other Provisions ran very low, so that on the 10th the Garrison was to have its Allowance reduced to one Quart of Corn for three Men per Day.

Mr. Dempsey, who left Fort Prince George two Days after Mr. Price, informs us, that the Army marched from Keowee the 24th ult. at Eight in the Morning, and halted at 72 Miles Distance, for the Pack-Horses and Cattle to come up.

BOSTON, July 14.

The Report we had lately of some Cattle being taken on their Way to Crown-Point, is without Foundation: One of the Persons who went with them returned here Yesterday, and informs us that the Indians had Way-laid them, but while they were preparing to fall on the Guard, a Party came from Crown-Point to escort them, whereby the Enemy were disappointed in their Design: Our Informant left Crown-Point Yesterday Seven-night, and was no more than three Days coming from thence to No. 4, and two Days more to Rutland.—Colonel Haviland commands at Crown-Point: Major Rogers with his Rangers were there, and filling up his Companies with those who had a Mind to enlist out of the Provincials: Our Troops were hearty, and in high Spirits; some of them employed in getting the Battoes and other Things in Readiness to go down the Lake; while others are employed in making a good Waggon Road from Crown-Point to No. 4: At the same Time the New-Hampshire Troops are making the Road from No. 4 towards Crown-Point.

Last Week one Chamberlain, belonging to Fort Dummer, arrived there in about ten Days from Montreal, after a tedious Captivity: He says, that the Indians, despairing of all Succours from France, were packing up their All, in order to go to the Mississippi, and were going to carry all their Prisoners with them: That he had several Times attempted to make his Escape, but was discovered, till the last, when in their Confusion they did not keep such a strict Watch over them as usual, he effected it.

General M——y has said, that with five Regiments compleat, he should not doubt of soon making an entire Conquest of Canada. This Force he has not. But we do not much regret it, when we look to the fine Army under General Amherst, well provided, and able to command the best Supplies of every Sort. Canada must now in all Probability be speedily reduced, whenever this Army enters the Country. The Enemy it must be confessed have shewn Spirit and Alertness. Notwithstanding the Blow they received the last Year, they collected their remaining Force, they made Preparations for a Siege, they went from Montreal, risking the leaving that and all the upper Part of their Country naked and defenceless, and laid Siege to Quebec, very early in the Season, much earlier than we suspected that an Army in that Climate could take the Field. But thank Heaven, through the Bravery of our Officers and Troops in that City, they were repulsed. They have now no Hopes of recovering their Capital. By what they suffered last Year, and this Season, before Quebec, their regular Force is almost reduced to nothing: The Flower of their Colony Troops is cut off: Their Supplies are exhausted; particularly their Ammunition; in their precipitate Flight from before Quebec, they left every Thing necessary for the Defence of their Country. We have the entire Command of the River St. Lawrence, and consequently they can have no Hope of any Succour from France. No one can doubt that they made their utmost Efforts for regaining their Capital, upon which their All depends.—Their whole Force was drawn together and exerted upon this Occasion; and yet this Force could not withstand the last Sally made by the Garrison of Quebec; a Garrison which at that Time, did not exceed 2500 effective Men. This demonstrates how much their Courage is broken, and their Strength reduced; and how little able they are to resist a fresh, well conducted, and resolute Army.—So fair a Prospect we now have of bringing to a speedy Issue, the grand Dispute in America, to the lasting Repose of these Colonies, and the Glory and Felicity of the British Nation, which has already expended so much Blood, and such immense Treasures in this important Cause. There is not a Briton, but impatiently wishes to see so happy an Event.

NEW-YORK, July 21.

On Saturday, the 12th Instant, arrived at New-Port, by Land, Mr. Joseph Pike, of that Place, who was at Oswego in the Year 1756, when that Place unfortunately fell into the Hands of the Enemy. He, with 13 more English Prisoners, were by Order of the French General, St. Luke, delivered to 25 Savages (natural Allies of the French) 12 made their Escape. Pike and another, were soon after conducted into the Woods by the Indians, who employed them in hunting for six Months, in the Fall and Winter. After which, those two unhappy Persons were conveyed to a Town called Conasafatego, inhabited by Part of an Indian Nation. The next Season their Exercise was hunting. The third, they were commanded to perform the same Duty, but were obliged to return in four Months, Beaver proving so scarce, as not to afford the Indians sufficient Game; during their Return, their only Sustainance was Barks of Trees and Roots. In the Summer of the fourth Year, their Business was to clear Land, and raise Corn. In the Fall, Pike, and his Fellow Sufferer, were sold for 3 Years to two different French Merchants, for 150 Pistareens each; one of which died in 2 Months; when they were conducted to a Prison at Montreal, where they continued in a miserable Condition, upon a nauseous and slender Allowance, till a Flag of Truce was prepared to receive them, and 128 other English Prisoners, which were safely landed at Crown-Point.

Extract of a Letter from Albany, July 10, 1760.

"I take this Opportunity of acquainting you of our worthy Friend Denormandie's having been drowned on his Passage from Oswego to Niagara, almost at the latter. A Sea struck his Whale-Boat, and split her; he depending on his Swimming, stripped his Coat and Jacket off, and plunged in; the rest of the Crew staid on the Wreck with Safety, while poor Denormandie, in spite of all the Boats that came to his Assistance, after a long Struggle perished. The Waistband of his Breeches gave Way, and they fell down to his Feet, and was the immediate Cause of his Death. His Body was cast on Shore at Niagara the next Morning, and was decently interred.

"The General, and most of the Troops, are at Oswego; and Major Gladwin, with 5 or 600 Men, are set off from Niagara for Presque-Ile, upon a secret Expedition, which Time must bring to our Knowledge."

Saturday last a Gentleman arrived here from Crown-Point, which Place he left the Sunday before. Our Army there, consisting of 5000 effective Men, was well, and in high Spirits, and supplied with all Sorts of Necessaries in great Abundance.

PHILADELPHIA, July 24.

A Gentleman writes from Antigua, that the Montagu Man of War, lately arrived there from Quiberon Bay, brought Advice, that of 30 odd Ships of War, fitted out by the French to cruise on our Trade, 21 of them were at Antigua with Admiral Boscawen in that Bay.

Another Gentleman says, that not less than 40 Sail of French Vessels, Privateers and Merchantmen, are taken by Admiral Boscawen's Fleet.

We hear from Pittsburgh, that on the 7th Instant the Companies of the Royal Americans marched for Presque-Ile, under the Command of Colonel Bouquet; as did also Capt. M'Neil's Company, of the Virginia Regiment: That on the Wednesday following Colonel Hugh Mercer was to march for the same Place with three Companies of the Pennsylvania Regiment, viz. Captains Clapham's, Biddle's, and Anderson's: And that two Days after, they were to be followed by two Companies more of the Pennsylvanians, commanded by the Captains Atlee and Miles.—The Destination of these Troops was not known; but from the Nearness of Presque-Ile to Detroit, it was hoped the Enemy would not be long in Possession of that Place.

ANNAPOLIS, July 31.

Thursday Evening last, after a Spell of very sultry, hot, close Weather, we had here as severe a Gull of Lightning, Thunder, Wind, and Rain, as has been known for several Years, which has done considerable Damage, by breaking down Mill-Dams, Fruit Trees, and Fields of Indian Corn, &c. One Gentleman about 7 Miles from Town, had about 20,000 Tobacco Plants destroyed, and received other Damage, in the Whole to the Amount of near Seventy Pounds. The Storm lasted near Two Hours, and the Lightning and Thunder was almost incessant, and very near the Earth.—A Tobacco House, on My Lord's Manor, in this County, with Tobacco, Wheat and Corn in it, belonging to the Widow Owen, was fired by the Lightning, and burnt down.

One Evening last Week, some frolicsome Blades, merrily than wife, were at the Pains to take off and destroy the cross Piece of the Gallows; having, it is like, forgot the old Proverb, that it is dangerous playing with Edge Tools.

Two Days ago one ——— Lightfoot, who lives in this Town, was committed to Goal, for borrowing privately Corn out of a Gentleman's Corn-House, a few Miles off, in the Night.

JOHN READ MAGKUDER.

Charles County, June 22d, 1760.

RAN away from the Subscriber, a Convict Servant Man named John Winter, a very compleat House Painter; he can imitate Marble or Mahogany very exactly, and can paint Floor Cloths as neat as any imported from Britain. The Time of his going off is uncertain, as he was hired to a Gentleman in Virginia who can give no Account of the Time. The last Work he did was a House for Col. Washington near Alexandria. He must be pretty well known there, having work'd at his Business several Months in Town. He is a very impertinent Fellow, pretty tall, and very red about the Nose and Face. His Dress is uncertain. Whoever brings the said Servant home, or secures him so that he may be had again, shall have Five Pistoles Reward, paid by

JOHN FENDALL.

Charles County, June 22d, 1760.

RAN away last Night from the Subscribers, two Convict Servants, viz.

James Williams, about 5 Feet 6 Inches high, of a fair Complexion, short dark Hair, and the two fore Fingers of his right Hand cut off (as he says by his Mother.) Had on an Osnabrigs Shirt and Trowsers, a blue Sailor's Jacket, old Shoes and Stockings, and an old Hat.

Thomas Oxford, a Lad, about 5 Feet 4 or 5 Inches high, sandy Hair, white Eye-brows, and freckled Face. Had on a black Que Wig, pretty good Hat, Shoes and Stockings.

It is suspected they will steal other Cloaths, and that they have a forged Pass as Sailors.

Whoever secures both or either of the said Servants, so that they may be had again, shall have Four Pistoles Reward for both, or Two Pistoles for either, paid by
